Durufle Requiem Score

The Top Ten Greatest Requiem Masses The Imaginative
The Roman Catholic Mass for the Dead—the Requiem sometimes called Missae pro Defunctis or Defuncto or Missae des Mortes—is surely the most dramatic of liturgical forms and has inspired countless composers from medieval times to the present. What the Czech composer Antonín Dvořák, a devout Catholic, was to the Requiem Mass in the 19th century, the French composer Maurice Duruflé was to it in the 20th.

On 13 May 1948, Duruflé’s Requiem Op 9 was published by the French firm Durand. It had been commissioned six years earlier under the collaborationist Vichy regime, but Duruflé was still working on it in 1944 when the regime collapsed and in fact did not complete it until the year of publication.
